THE COLLEGE OF

Wooster

DISTINCTIVE ATMOSPHERE

BEGINS WITH INNOVATION

THE NEW STUDENT DIRECTOR

Wooster has educated boys since its founding in 1866, and many different national, cultural groups have been part of its history. We can learn from Wooster's past, but we have never been more committed to the future. Our increasing diversity provides an opportunity to live and learn from a variety of backgrounds and experiences. We are an invaluable resource for students who want to learn from the best.

THE NEW STUDENT DIRECTORY welcomes

THE CLASS OF 2000

The College of Wooster
Wooster, Ohio

Welcome to Wooster Class of 2000

First of all, we would like to welcome and say "HELLO" to all the new students. Thank you for responding to all our weird & wacky questions—we had bunches of fun reading your responses & we feel like we know you already!

We have many people we need to thank: Stephen Penrod & Emily Durham for entrusting us with this project; Cary at The Collier Printing Co.; Alexis Haakonsen, Julie Jameson, Jane Taylor, & Sally Whitman in Admissions for answering numerous phone calls & questions and for all their love and support; Joyce in Office Services for bailing us out of a difficult situation; Dean Plusquellec and Gloria Litteral in the Dean of Students office for having a large interest in the outcome of this book; Bettye Jo in the President's Office for providing us with the picture of President Hales; Bruce Clayton for the fruit question; and finally, many, many thanks to Melissa's mailman (he can be found on page 4) for lugging all of your pictures & responses to her house and for being so patient when they didn't fit in her mailbox!

We must also give a big thanks to all the local businesses who advertised in this book. And a special thanks and congratulations to Margaret Pett for winning the cover contest and Stephanie J. Hammer whose artwork appears on page 7. It was a hard decision & we thank both everyone who submitted an entry & those who helped vote for the winning cover!

Wow! That was a lot of people, but we had lots of help putting this all together. We had a wonderful time doing this, and we have to thank each other for the help, support, time, & long talks we have spent on this. Above all, we have become better friends in the process!

All that's left to say is that we wish the Class of 2000 all the best in these next four years & we hope that you grow to love Wooster as much as we do!

2. If you could be any fruit, which would you be and why?
3. What would be in your ideal care package from home?

Aaron Woloff
Philadelphia, PA
George Washington Carver High School for Engineering and Science

A big kid. An apple cause they are the best!
T-shirts, wheels, bearings.

Adam J. Ratliff
Cincinnati, OH
Saint Xavier

Friendly, fun, nice. A watermelon because it is big, red, and juicy. A whole lot of my grandma's cookies and some clean clothes.

Abbie Lear Alliance, OH Alliance High School

Friendly, honest, opin-ionated. A kiwi because the outside may look unappealing but the inside is nice and sweet.
Pictures of friends and family, all of my stuffed animals and Heggy's chocolates.

Adrienne Ferraro Macedonia, OH
St. Peter Chanel High School

Abiah Clarke
Darien, CT
Darien High School

I am very agreeable,
very open-minded, and thrive on challenges. I would be a coconut because I like to keep a hard outer shell around me, yet I am very sweet and tender on the inside.

Alexa Thompson Gilpin
Milton, MA
Milton Academy

Perky, friendly, sensitive. A grape because I'm small, sweet, and I shrivel easily in the sun.
A poem from my brother, my dad's chocolate cake, a corny note from my mom, lots of snack food.

Adam Scott Howarth
Rochester Hills, MI
Rochester Adams

Impulsive, silly, non-conformist. I would be a zamboni. Why? Why not? The local newspaper, home baked cookies, the latest snapshots, and an inflatable lifelike latex Liberace.

Alexia C. Zdral
Sewickley, PA
Quaker Valley High School

Hoss, pensive, wack.
Tomato . . . wait . . . or is that a vegetable?
How many people have already said "Money!"?

Ali Jones
Lexington, KY
Henry Clay High School
Outgoing, unique, happy. A life size poster of John Travolta.

Allison Wilmot Paxton, MA
Wachusett Regional H.S.
Extroverted, creative, articulate. I'd be a raspberry because they're cheeky. Money (duh), chocolate, tickets to "Les Miz" and "Phantom," taped episodes of "The X Files," Pez dispensers, my friends, more Beatles' CD's, crayons, coffee.

Alison McDonald
Butler, PA
Shady Side Academy
Fresh coffee beans, markers, CD's, and a good book.

Alyssa Wilmot
Broadview Heights, OH
North Royalton H.S.
Humorous, observant, talented. A tomato because it's controversial: is it a fruit or a vegetable? Lucky Charms cereal, Ben & Jerry's Cherry Garcia Frozen Yogurt, bottled water, a poetry book, a deck of cards, a picture of my family, and some money.

Allen Ward Barnesville, OH
Barnesville High School
I know nothing. A tomato because everyone think's it is a vegetable. My mother's cooking, perhaps some Crispix mix, a CD, a book, and perhaps some tidbit for my sailboat.

Amanda C. Couture
Indianapolis, IN North Central High School

Allison Marlies Cornett Kendallville, TN
Indiana Academy for Science, Mathematics, and Humanities
Funny, energetic, caring.
I think I'd like to retire someday and be an eggplant (in the fruit sense) because they just seem to me to be rather content and peaceful.

Amanda Kay Kriska Bexley, OH
Bexley High School Energetic, hopeful, friendly. A peach — very warm and fuzzy on the outside and also sweet on the inside.
My mom's homemade snickerdoodles and a music mix from my sister.

Amanda M. Rardin
Mt. Vernon, OH
Mt. Vernon High School

Assertive, friendly, fun. A pomegranate because of the many separate characteristics that I have. MONEY, home-made cookies, a note from the family, MONEY.

Amy Elizabeth Farley
Yarmouth, ME
Yarmouth High School

Outspoken, comical, compassionate. A kiwi — because of it's beautiful green color. Salt bagels, Scrabble, and the smell of the ocean.

Amanda Rearick
Gahanna, OH
Westerville North High School

Responsible, confident, smiley. Kiwi — because it is rough on the outside, but soft on the inside — sophisticated but sweet. All my clothes, pictures of my cats, Magnetic Springs Water.

Amy Graham
Amherst, OH
Marion L. Steele H.S.

Direct, humorous, sensible. An orange — I have an outer barrier that is easily broken and on the inside I'm sweet and kind. I also have sections representing my different interests. Some Mountain Dew and some Nutri Grain bars would be my ideal care package.

Amber Grossniklaus
Wooster, OH
Wooster High School

Devoted, hardworking, and caring. A grape because like a grape I can have sweet and sour moods. Love, security, my dogs.

Andrea K. Hayward
Newark, OH
Newark High School

A strawberry because it is a sensual fruit but at the same time sweet and pleasant. Gum and cookies and other items such as nylons or deodorant.

Amy R. Brown
Akron, OH
Coventry High School

Outgoing, fun, dependable. A grapefruit — it makes people pucker up and yet you sprinkle a little bit of sugar on it and it becomes sweet as pie! Cookies, Pop Tarts, and a jar of pickles.

Andres Alarcon
Lorain, OH
Clearview High School

Competitive, spontaneous, easy-going. An apple because you will always be picked. A car, money, gas card, and food.

Andy Holmes
Cincinnati, OH
St. Xavier High School

Anna Jenks
San Jose, CA
Leland High School

Andy Stegmeier
Stow, OH
Stow Munroe Falls High School
Funny, athletic, artistic.

Annalise Albright
Granville, OH
Granville High School
Comfortable, open-minded, feeling-oriented. I would be a peach — I have a rosy glow, but I bruise easily. My mom's homemade macaroni and cheese, Cinnamon Toast Crunch, a new CD, a great book, money, and my cats and dog.

Angel Marie Jernigan
Millersburg, OH
Hiland High School
Magnetic, intense, possessive. Mango — I would be a mango because I am unusual and can't be found except in certain areas. I am sweet on the inside with a bittersweet covering. A package filled with all my bath needs and money.

Ardith C. Barrow
Dayton, OH
Chaminade-Julienne High School
Dedicated to everything and everyone I care about, unpredictable, and open-minded.

Angela Kathleen Joyce Hebron, OH
Lakewood High School
Ambitious, quiet, sensitive. Homemade fudge, money, and a note from mom.

Aric Hughes Hiser
North Olmsted, OH
North Olmsted High School
A banana.

Beatriz Elisa Soto-Diaz
Amherst, MA
Amherst High School

Tropical, driven, especial (I'm bilingual). Kiwi because at first glance you can't tell what lies within. A full box of Snickers, Ben & Jerry's Rain Forest Crunch, and an Isabel Allende novel.

Benjamin T. Herrman
Warren, OH
The Kiski School

Large, gentle, friendly. A kiwi because they are fuzzy on the outside and soft in the middle. It would contain snack food.

Becky Lietz
Cuyahoga Falls, OH
Cuyahoga Falls High School

Milky Way candy bars, Pepsi & Dr. Pepper 24-packs, Cheetos, Pez candy, money, and letters from my friends.

Beth Chalmers
Dunwoody, GA
Dunwoody High School

My ideal care package would contain all of my favorite things: Dr. Pepper, letters from all my friends, Mom's food, my dog, and anything Winnie the Pooh.

Ben Arnold
Mansfield, OH
Madison Comprehensive High School

Tall, athletic, and humorous. An apple because an apple a day keeps the doctor away so it must be doing something right. The 3 M's: mom, money, and mash potatoes.

Blair Weiler
Ridgewood, NJ
Ridgewood High School

Friendly, curious, energetic. I'd have to say an apple because they're very versatile — an apple a day keeps the doctor away! Fresh fruit, letters from friends, money.

Ben Miller
Cincinnati, OH
Sycamore High School

Leader, creative, enthusiastic. A peach because it's fuzzy, sweet, and tastes good. It also makes good pies. Candy, homemade cookies, a novel, pictures.

Bill Messner
Uniontown, OH
Lake High School

A date — obvious reasons. A pizza and the exam answers.

Bob Spratley
Worthington, OH
Linworth Alternative Program

Independent, thoughtful, and unique. I would be a banana because they get better with age.
CD's, books, and my guitar.

Brent Stypczynski
Berea, OH
Berea High School

Brad Townsend
Mt. Gilead, OH
Mt. Gilead High School

A kiwi because it has an odd name and, of course, tastes really good. Money — lots of money.

Brian Bendik
Elyria, OH
Elyria High School

Big, strong, funny. Food and money — arriving in a car.

Brad Vance
Nye, OH
Fairview High School

Chocolate, crazy, freak.
Kiwi — it's brown and fuzzy on the outside and green and juicy on the inside. A folder containing all of the assignments in completed form for the rest of the year.

Brian Mirous
Woodridge, IL
Illinois Mathematics and Science Academy

Athletic, organized, hard working.
Strawberries — they're my favorite fruit and they taste great with ice cream. Money, canned Soup, cereal, blue era$able pen$, pretzel$, large pepperoni pizza, a little more money.

Brae Bacon
East Grand Rapids, MI
East Grand Rapids H.S.

Cynical, friendly, shy (at times). I would be a kiwi fruit because they are soft and fuzzy on the outside and can either be sweet on the inside or sour or both.
A box of tea to make hot tea, some coffee, and some new shoes and socks (those are my favorite articles of clothing).

Brian Watkins
Uhrichsville, OH
Claymont High School

Outgoing, athletic, personable.

Brooke Amelia Thurlow
Columbus, OH
Northland High School

Empathetic, funny, knowledgeable. A strawberry — I have no idea why. My ideal care package would be cards or letters from friends and family at home, or anything hand delivered from someone I really miss.

Caroline Mulcahy
Chagrin Falls, OH
Kenston High School

Sensitive, different, overworked. A kiwi — it's quite unusual, you know. Money, granola bars, crackers.

Caitlin A. Pine Minneapolis, MN
Visitation School

Down-to-earth, reticently gregarious, and intelligent. I would be a peeled apple because a perfect apple is tender, not mushy when peeled; sweet when tasted, but not saccharine. Decorated box, crisp new Sunday New York Times, fresh bag of coffee (for aroma and drink), green wool sweater, and chilled MN snow — fresh from the curb.

Carolyn Firchak
Newark, DE
Newark High School

Friendly, laid-back, conscientious. A grape because sometimes I'm sweet and sometimes I'm sour. Also because I'd prefer to be a part of a "bunch" rather than be by myself. MONEY!!

Carly Bronson
Moreland Hills, OH
Hyde School

Carolyn Sekerak
Parma, Ohio
Normandy High School

Creative, musical, and friendly. I would be a pineapple because they are fun and unique; looking at them cheers you up. M&M's, a nice note from the family, stamps, and quarters for laundry.

Carlye A. Burchett
Winchester, KY
George Rogers Clark H.S.

I am myself and do not conform to anybody or anybody's expectations of me. Do carrots count as fruit? If so, carrots, manly because I love carrots. If you want to go deeper, because carrots are sweet, although they seem tough — like me! Letters from everybody, chocolate candy, pictures of family, and money.

Carrie Wiles
Brewster, OH
Fairless High School

Sarcastic, caring, determined. Watermelon because it is sweet and juicy and pink (pink is my favorite color). Watermelon is the prettiest and yummiest fruit ever! Baby lotion, my teddy bear (Petie), Blow Pops (except grape), Twizzlers, money, new CD's, Victoria's Secret gift certificate.

Chad Peterman
Dennison, OH
Claymont High School

Outgoing, big, outdoorsman. Pineapple — so nobody would eat me.
Cookies.

Chris Lipari
Wexford, PA
North Allegheny Senior High

Outgoing, funny, romantic. Banana — I love them and anything they're in . . .
banana ice cream, banana bread (no nuts!), banana cream pie, banana pudding, banana pancakes, banana milkshakes, and the list goes on. Demi Moore — enough said!

Charlie Knapke
Fort Recovery, OH
Fort Recovery High School

Energetic, alert, polite.
Pineapple — hard on the outside, sweet on the inside. Money and letters.

Chris Reynolds
Medina, OH
Medina Senior H.S.

Kind, active, outgoing.
I'd be a tangelo because it's a fun word to say.
Some paper, pens, & pencils. Some candy & popcorn. A note with some of the stuff going on back home and things I've left behind that I need or want.

Cheryl Renee Farney
Rochester, NY
Allendale Columbia School

Poetic, musical, feminine (in 25 words or less these describe me). I would be a white nectarine because it is delicate, rich, and unique. It smells like roses and tastes like rose petals. Lemon Iced Tea Snapple, "Rainbow" cookies from Wegmans,
money (and lots of it).

Christen Coyle
Columbus, OH
Upper Arlington High School

Chris Hickey
Gahanna, OH
Gahanna-Lincoln H.S.

Kind, considerate, hard-working. Orange — it can be peeled and be enjoyed with a pleasing taste. Also, it has a lot of Vitamin C —> "Good For Your Body!" Mom's homemade cookies and cheeseburgers, not to mention lots and lots of Ho Ho's and Gatorade.

Christi Stern
Cincinnati, Ohio
Madeira High School

A "Three-Way" from Skyline, Graeter's ice cream, letters from all my friends, a gift certificate to the Dollar Store.

Christian Gerard Saulnier
Norwood, MA
Norwood High School

Outgoing, humorous, intelligent. Banana — because I'm yellow and when you leave me out, I turn brown and I can peel my skin off so you can eat me. $1,000, a model, a car, and a pepperoni pizza (large, so I can share with the model).

Clark Elliott Colby
Enumclaw, WA
Enumclaw High School

Not to be mushy, but the three best words describing myself would be honest, caring, musical. I would choose to be a kiwi because it's furry and it's the only fruit you can snuggle up with in front of a fireplace. Ideally, a gigantic box containing my mother, father, and little brother. Realistically, I would have my parents send me my bedroom.

Christina Quillen
Marion, VA
Marion Senior High School

I am confident, quiet, and independent. I would be a prune. There is no obstacle too large for me to move. Money!!

Colleen Roberts
Batavia, OH
Cincinnati Country Day School

Outgoing, spontaneous, and determined. A peach because on the outside they are soft and sensitive — yet on the inside there is a tough core. A book of quotes and chocolate chip cookies.

Christopher T. Matsos
Wooster, OH
Central Christian High School

Entertaining, imaginative, thoughtful. I would be a banana. I'm a deep person; my friends are always peeling away the outside and finding a new side of me within. Popcorn, chocolate chip cookies, a new CD.

Cort Cunningham
North East, PA
North East High School

Artistic, laid-back, friendly. I would be an orange because oranges get to grow in Florida and I love warm weather. My ideal care package would contain many different kinds of candy, Cheez-Its, Tostitos, Kudos, Snickers, Fruit Snacks, my Sports Illustrated, and any toiletries I've run out of.

Christy Judd
Northfield, OH
Nordon High School

Competitive, enthusiastic, energetic. Strawberries — cause they are awesome! LOTS OF FOOD! CANDY!

Cory J. Spino
Oak Harbor, OH
Oak Harbor High School

My ideal care package from home would be my clothes, stereo, and CD's.

Craig Dorer
Mountain Lakes, NJ
Mountain Lakes High School

Creative, sensitive, humorous. Kiwi — becoming more and more popular and their appeal is not based on how they look, but what's inside (awww).

Daniel J. Bifano
Mt. Lebanon, PA
Mt. Lebanon High School

Independent, snappy dresser, lost in the past. A banana because we're both ectomorphs. My dog and my horse.

Crystal Lynn Mayle
Canton, OH
Glen Oak High School

Self-confident, dedicated, good humored. FOOD!!

Daniel A. Spar
Bethesda, MD
Walt Whitman H.S.

The three words that best describe me are: outgoing, friendly, and above all LOUD!! I would be a banana — having a tough exterior, but an incredibly soft and supple interior. I'd be arrested if I wrote it down.

DJ Francis Canfield, OH
Canfield High School

Creative, hard-working, special. I'd be a kiwi because I could be green on the inside and fuzzy on the outside. Small, unmarked bills.

Danielle Ami Greenburg
Hermitage, PA
Hickory High School

Honest, loyal, strong-willed. Food — presents.

Dan Mizener
Port Clinton, OH
Port Clinton High School

Courageous, determined, athletic. Coconut because I don't like to open up to people. Money, food, letter, my girlfriend.

David Copas
Cridersville, OH
Wapakoneta H.S.

Perceptive, considerate, wary. I would be a kup-wasu because it makes one of those new Snapple drinks taste so damn good. A lot of Snapple, a lot of food, a lot of beer, and plane tickets to Hawaii (for summer vacation).

David J. Silvestri
Wooster, OH
Home Schooled

Different, determined, undaunted. I would be a coconut . . . hard for anyone to get to me, but those who work hard and do, deserve to eat the fruit.

Dwayne Archibald
Germantown, TN
Harding Academy

Easy-going, sanguineous, non-stereotypical. A nectarine because it has a sweet taste; it's easy to eat. TV, VCR, stereo, lifetime hook-up to the Internet.

Dawn Kokensparger Brunswick, OH
Brunswick High School

Any fruit would work since I am pretty fruity anyway! A 2 pound bag of M&M's.

Eddie Priesand
Beachwood, OH
Beachwood High School

Devon Winfield Faulkner
Rindge, NH
Conval Regional High School

Quiet, reserved, rural. I would be an apple. They are good for you and they taste good. Money.

Elana Lester
Cleveland Heights, OH
Luthern East High School

Complex, versatile, wonderful. A load of money and apple juice.

Donald E. Howard
Shaker Heights, OH
University School

Spontaneous, fun-loving, considerate. A kiwi: like me it looks weird on the outside, but is really good on the inside. Pictures of all my high school friends and my favorite coffee mug.

Elizabeth (Beth) King
Berlin Center, Ohio
Western Reserve High School

Outgoing, fun-loving, and determined. Skim milk and Nestle Quick — if I have chocolate milk with me, I can go anywhere!

Elizabeth C. Reiter
Wadsworth, OH
Wadsworth High School

Christian, honest, thoughtful. Cookies and mail from friends and family.

Emily Fleming
Westlake, OH
Westlake High School

Caring, intelligent, obsessive. Money, pictures of my friends, letters from friends and family, clean clothes.

Elizabeth Rundorff
Hermitage, PA
Hickory High School

Independent, insightful, kind. Pictures of my family, a letter from my sister, my mom's home-made brownies, and money!

Emily Welty
Three Rivers, MI
Three Rivers H.S.

Sincere, introspective, sensitive. Grapes because each grape is an individual but they all band together. Several eclectic books, some interesting art postcards, lots of photographs, and some Rice Krispies Treats.

Elizabeth M. Somrack
Willoughby Hills, OH
Willoughby South High

Eric Carlson
Glenshaw, PA
Shaler Area High School

Outgoing, conservative, procrastinator. If I had to choose a fruit to be, it would have to be Pete Townsend from The Who — he is the man. Newspaper clippings, letters from friends, cans of snuff, soft TP, $, books, pictures, and my girlfriend.

Emily E. Cotts
Pittsburgh, PA
Bethel Park Senior High School

Interesting, contradictory, and objective. A plum because I like them. Contact Lens Solution, Discover, Mucho Dinero.

Eva Clarke
Marietta, OH
Marietta High School

Facetious, glamorous, subversive.

Frank Galati
Sharon, PA
Hickory High School

Nice, honest, caring.
Cookies and clean clothes.

Geoffrey (Geoff) A. Bonvallet
Westerville, OH
Westerville North H.S.

Insightful, creative, and clever best describe me. I would be a melon because it best represents me. It may not be as pretty as some other fruits, but it's really sweet inside. It would contain only one thing: all-encompassing power!

Frank Mascola
Youngstown, OH
Cardinal Mooney High School

Intelligent, laid-back, friendly.

Greg Seebach
North Canton, OH
Hoover High School

Strong, outgoing, fun. I would be a pineapple
because there's a tough, armor plate protecting the inside, but if you get through the outside, it's sweet and very pleasing.

G.V. Malmgren IV
Hinsdale, IL
Hinsdale Central H.S.

Funny, caring, enthusiastic. I'd be a tomato because people call me different names. G.V. and Geeves are the most popular names. Food, clothing, letters from family and friends, and the local newspaper.

Hayley Blake Wrubel
Half Moon Bay, CA
Crystal Springs Uplands

Tenacious, lighthearted, and huggable. A peach mostly because that is what my momma calls me, but I guess it was because I was covered in peach fuzz when I was a baby. 5 pounds of dried cranberries, the funny papers, pictures, and a long letter.

Garrett Austin Siegers
Charlotte, NC
Myers Park High School

I would be an apple — sometimes sweet, sometimes sour, but always available.

Heather Stauffer
Cleveland Heights, OH
Cleveland Heights High School

Caring, adventurous, friendly. A nut — I'm kinda nutty! GUM, Mitchell's chocolate, homemade raspberry jam.

Heather S. Trubee
Millersburg, OH
West Holmes High School

An orange mainly because I really like oranges, but also because you just never know what it is like under its peel. An interesting book or reading material, money, food.

Ian McKenna
Youngstown, OH
Ursuline High School

I couldn't think of just three words. I would be a prune because when people think of prunes or look at them, they are turned off. People need to acquire a liking for prunes; some people may look at me and be turned off, but if they talk to me then they may acquire a liking. Pecan Sandies, Pistachio nuts, Graham Crackers, and a few local newspapers.

Heidi Kay Elizabeth Buffington
Erie, PA
McDowell High School

Individual — be yourself; creative — homemade cards, etc. are cheaper; friendly — a smile means the same thing in every language. A pineapple because aside from being delicious, it's interesting. Gum, Swedish fish, Canada mints, a new CD, and recorded messages from loved ones.

JR Strauss Scotia, NY
Scotia-Glenville High School

I am lazy. I'd be an apple. I don't know why; I'd just be. Money and clean underwear — two things I'll probably run out of quickly.

Holly Nicole Deeds
Newark, OH
Licking Valley High School

I am the kind of person who can be in a crowd or stand out on my own. Therefore, I would be a banana; a banana can be mixed with other things such as to make bread or can be great alone.

Jacob Burt
Wyoming, OH
Wyoming High School

Offbeat, flexible, unpredictable. A lime because for sheer versatility nothin' beats a lime. Cash, of course. And maybe a few packages of those Pillsbury Cinnamon Rolls — damn they're good.

Ian Lauer
Nashport, OH
Tri-Valley High School

Friendly, committed, competitive. I would be a kiwi fruit because they are more rare than say apples and they have a great taste of their own.

James "Wesley" (Wes) Gibson
Ormond Beach, FL
Mainland High School

Friendly, athletic, tan. The watermelon because I taste so good! Two credit cards, month's cash advance.

Jamie Mapes
East Grand Rapids, MI
East Grand Rapids H.S.

Happy/optimistic, wacky/somewhat weird, dedicated.
A kiwi because they are not normal but not really weird;
they are sweet and sort of crazy (if a fruit can be crazy). Buddies (local bakery) bagels, Tootsie Rolls, Wintergreen Lifesavers, D&W (local store) cookies,
my mom's Rice Krispies treats.

Jason Herzog Broken Arrow, OK Broken Arrow Senior High School

Swimmer, energetic, outgoing. An orange because anything is better than a rotten apple.
A letter from my parents telling me how proud they are of me.

Jamie Jo Williamson
Massillon, OH
Massillon Washington
High School

The three words that best describe me are friendly, happy, and trustworthy!

Jason Owen
Cincinnati, OH
Indian Hill High School

Kiwi — just because.
Money & a card.

Jana Genzen
Parma, OH
Padua High School

Creative, perky, unique.
A pomogranate because they have a cool name and although they look icky on the outside, they have cool red seeds on the inside. A hug in a box.

Jason Storck
Wooster, OH
Wooster High School

Friendly, long-winded, inventive. Passion fruit, but my girlfriend will not let me tell you why. My dog.

Jason Godwin
Dublin, OH
Worthington Kilbourne
High School

Honest, dependant, serious. A banana because it has good looks and peels easily.

Jason Thomas
Pittsburgh, PA
Central Catholic High School

Eccentric, lazy, silly.

Jay MacGregor
Mason City, IA
Mason City High School

Tomato — then I could go undercover as a vegetable. All the stuff I forgot to bring with me.

Jen Hayman
Wellesley, MA
Wellesley High School

Funny, friendly, easygoing. Grape — I'd be in a bunch and have company. Big bag of M&M's, local newspaper, lollipops.

Jay Myers
Newark, OH
Newark High School

Independent, good listener, energetic. Blueberries — they are small and I can eat a lot of them. Money and my mom to do laundry.

Jennifer Laura Gladden
Eden, NC
Morehead High School

Laid-back, open-minded, fun. Pineapple — prickly, but sweet. Homemade chocolate chip cookies.

Jeannie Kosinski
Newark, OH
Maumee Valley Country Day

Happy, friendly, outgoing. A star fruit because some day I am going to be famous, but even though I'm going to be a star, I'll still be sweet. My mom's homemade chocolate chip cookies and a videotape of my family telling me how things are going — with my cats on it too!

Jennifer Penrod
Chardon, OH
Chardon High School

Giggly, committed, caring. I would be a banana because they grow in clusters above the ground and they have a protective peel. Homemade cookies and milk.

Jeffrey Ryan Tymowicz
Albion, MI
Albion Senior High School

Sarcastic, honest, happy. A plum — it's got a sour exterior, but a sweet inside — kind of like me. Isn't that beautiful? Super glue — I tend to break things. Oh, and, of course, money.

Jennifer Christine West
Vermilion, OH
Vermilion High School

My ideal care package would contain money and a plane ticket to Capri.

Jennifer Ruth White
Maryville, TN
Maryville High School

Stubborn, caring, devoted. A kiwi because even though it doesn't look good, it tastes great, and it is both sweet and tart. Homemade snickerdoodles, some good books to read, and a long letter from Mom and Dad.

Jim Morrison
Salem, OH
Salem High School

Cute, funny, determined. Pineapple — tough on the outside, soft on the inside. Lots of money.

Jessica DuPlaga
Broadview Heights, OH
Brecksville-Broadview Heights High School

Honest, hard-working, indecisive. Uglifruit — it's not so good looking on the outside, but once you get to know it, you'd be pleasantly surprised.

Joel G. Beauchemin
Warwick, RI

Weird, wacky, and wild (I think). If I were a fruit, I would be a watermelon (seedless) because they're juicy, they melt in your mouth, and everyone likes them. Cheesecake, six-packs of Dr. Pepper, Doritos, Star Wars books and comics, blank tapes, and twenty-dollar bills.

Jessica Wolf
Parma, OH
Padua Franciscan High School

Shy, sweet, caring, and unique. My ideal care package would be a bunch of food and goodies from home.

John Michael Lamanna
Youngstown, OH
Cardinal Mooney H.S.

Intelligent, humorous, and happy. I do not think I would want to be a fruit because I do not eat fruit and know nothing about fruit. Pictures, yearbook, and anything else to remember my friends by. Also, letters from my family and homemade cookies.

Jill Miller
Jefferson, OH
Jefferson Area High School

Hard-working, stubborn, outgoing. A peach — it's soft on the outside and refreshing on the inside. Homemade cookies, money, and lots of healthy munchies.

John Milliken
Clayton, MI
Lenawee Christian High School

Strawberries — they are red.

John Norris
Cuyahoga Falls, OH
Walsh Jesuit H.S.

In my opinion, confident, loyal, and really funny. A watermelon because they just taste great. It also takes someone with a very big appetite to finish the whole thing. An envelope of money wrapped up in some clean clothes, with a great deal of food and beverages to fill me up for about a month or so.

Joshua Lee Gerlach
New Haven, CT
The Marvelwood School

Funny, responsible, athletic. The ideal care package would include: cash and nachos with cheese and salsa.

Joseph Deneroff
New York, NY
Bronx High School of Science

Athletic, caring, fun-loving. Mango — uncommon and it's exciting. A photo of New York City (home).

Julia Musson
North Ridgeville, OH
Magnificat High School

A peach — they're my favorite. Money, cookies, and letters from everyone at home telling me how empty their lives are without me.

Joseph Louis Kodba
Erie, PA
Mercyhurst Preparatory High School

Spontaneous, creative, sensitive. I would be a pineapple because they are tough on the outside, but soft on the inside. Money, food, and my dog.

Julie Assmus
Hanover, NH
Hanover High School

Spontaneous, animated, funny. Gooseberries because they're tart and tangy. Pictures of all my animals and family and friends.

Josh Crawford
Port Richey, FL
Ridgewood High School

Outgoing, likeable, humorous. I would have to be a tomato because most people consider a tomato a vegetable, but it's really a fruit; people just have to know me. My TV or pictures of home.

Julie Martin
South Portland, ME
South Portland High School

The Last Unicorn. Tomato — everyone thinks it's a vegetable, but it's really a fruit. BOOKS!! Girl Scout Cookies, my doggie, money, realms of fantasy.

Julie Zeller
Defiance, OH
Defiance Senior High School

Enthusiastic, responsible, and optimistic. A kiwi — it's really unique and I love its fuzzy outside. Clean clothes.

Karen L. Foster
Rochester, NY
Greece Olympia High School

Unique, deep, entertaining. A banana because you have to peel away the outside to get to the healthy inside.

Justin Charles Rath

Katharine Watts
Parma, OH
Normandy High School

Honest, imaginative, and a poet. I'd be a cantaloupe because they're tough on the outside, but soft in the middle. In my care package I'd want a poetry book by Allen Ginsberg, a copy of 'Eugene Onegin,' and anything with a duck on it.

Kagan McKittrick
Trumansburg, NY
Odessa Montour Central School

Athletic, handsome, friendly. A coconut — hard on the outside, sweet on the inside. Homemade food, a letter from mom, my mail.

Katherine Hamburger
Atlanta, GA
Proctor Academy

Creative, natural, hard-working. I would be an apple because if you can find that perfect apple, nothing could be better. Stickers, apples, colored pencils, glitter, books.

Karen Fischer
Webster, NY
Webster High School

Clean laundry, food, six hours of extra time to do as I please, a cool pair of new shoes.

Katherine Varney
Westbrook, ME
Catherine McAuley High School (Portland, ME)

Adventurous, friendly, mysterious.

Kathryn M. Hoffman
Delaware, OH
Buckeye Valley High School

Original, open-minded, crazy. A down mattress, a Jeep Wrangler, and an endless supply of food.

Katie Hank
Lakewood, OH
Lakewood High School

Athletic, funny, creative. An apple because everybody likes apples. My ideal care package would include, first of all, money and then food, shampoo, and stuff like that.

Kathryn G. Quimby
Williamsville, NY
Williamsville South High School

Imagination, passion, solitude. One dozen homebaked double fudge cookies, 24-pack of Coca-Cola Classic, hot chocolate mix, flavored coffees, and an envelope full of CASH.

Katie Hershoff
Elmhurst, IL
York Community High School

Dedicated, thoughtful, industrious. Something that no one has ever heard of; I hate being like everyone else. A homecooked meal — to remind me of my family.

Katie Aldrich
Farmington, NY
Canandaigua Academy

Friendly, listener, outgoing. Strawberry because it can be used in so many things and because it tastes good. New clothes, homemade cookies, homecooked food.

Katie Pease
Rocky River, OH
Rocky River High School

Controlling, laughter, active. Chocolate chip cookies, Kiwi Strawberry Ocean Spray Juice Drink.

Katie Davey
Mayfield Heights, OH
Beaumont High School

Fun, nice. Money, food.

Katie Pierce
Westerville, OH
Westerville High School

Caring, sentimental, cheerful. A strawberry because it can be used in all sorts of foods, but is also nice by itself and it's one of my favorite foods. "Smart Pop" microwave popcorn, money, comics, local news my mom cut out of the newspaper, "Fruit by the Foot," Chex mix.

Katie Price
East Liverpool, OH
East Liverpool High School

My ideal care package would include an Eric Clapton CD, a J. Crew catalog, and mom's brownies. (Oh, $ would be nice, too!)

Kelly M. McFarland
Cuyahoga Falls, OH
Walsh Jesuit High School

Quiet, determined, passionate. Tomato — different than the normal; unique. Chocolate chip cookies.

Katy Watson
Tipp City, OH
Tippecanoe High School

Straight-forward, relaxed, energetic. Food and Disney movies.

Kevin Brown
Doylestown, OH
Chippewa High School

Athletic, friendly. $$$$ — money! Cookies, Butterfingers and other candy bars, Rice Krispies treats.

Kay Wardlaw
Strongsville, OH
Strongsville High School

Happy, joyous, and free. I guess passion fruit because it is my favorite fruit, but I've never had any real desire to be a fruit. My best friend Maria.

Kevin Paul Godburn
Meriden, CT
St. Thomas Aquinas

Kind, creative, extreme. I would be a guava because it remains quiet and sweet, but it is still exciting. It, in general, is just pretty neat. Anything I may forget to bring out, money, and balloons.

Kaysa Pelofske Milwaukie, OR
Rex Putnam High School

Friendly (kind, sharing, caring), honest, trustworthy, easy-going. Peach because my hair is kind of fuzzy and soft. Cookies, pictures, and $.

Kevin Murphy
Strongsville, OH
Strongsville High School

Athletic, hardworking, outgoing. A pear because they are good and sweet. Lots of junk food.

Kevin E. Nieto
Tampa, FL
Jesuit High School

Sardonic, opinionated, tasty. A rancid melon plate. Bagels, bread, Altman movies, white t-shirts, my friends, my car.

Kristy L. Schavolt
Twinsburg, OH
R.B. Chamberlin H.S.

Optimistic, friendly, kind. A fruit salad because every fruit has its good qualities and this way you'd get a little of everything. Chocolate, a good Dean Counts book, Chips Ahoy cookies, a long letter about what's happening in the family, and lots of gum.

Kris Hall
Elmira, NY
Elmira Free Academy

Witty — because I enjoy having fun and can play off other people; caring — because I want the best for those around me; determined — because I feel that once started, everything must be completed. A fruit of the loom because it would allow me to have an expandable personality and be able to easily adapt to changing situations. A picture of my dog, a note from my friends, and a package of chocolate pudding.

Kurt Frankel Novelty, OH
West Geauga High School

Athletic, competitive, dedicated. I wouldn't be a fruit because I hate fruit. A few running magazines and a couple cases of Power Bars.

Krishna Sarbadhikari
Penfield, NY
Penfield High School

My ideal care package from home would include animal crackers, Bugles (corn chips), and a lot of stickers.

Lauren Johnson
Wooster, OH
Triway High School

Creative, stubborn, caring (that's what my boyfriend says anyway). A papaya — then I would get to live in Hawaii or the Philippines where it's warm. New pictures of "loved ones," a lifetime gift certificate to Red Lobster, dried flowers, art supplies, and Black Licorice.

Kristopher James Crawford Grafton, OH
Midview High School

Loving, athletic, quiet. Strawberry because I consider it exotic and sweet. Chocolate chip cookies and letters from home.

Laurie J. Poindexter
Toledo, OH
Notre Dame Academy

Honest, mature, stubborn. A melon/honeydew — you either like it or you don't.

Leslie Seibert
Port Clinton, OH
Port Clinton High School

I would be a peach because peaches are soft, sweet, and love sunshine. Jujubes and bald chocolate chip cookies.

Margaret Burger
Urbana, IL
Urbana High School

Energetic, sympathetic, and personable.

Lori Lynn Oberholtzer
Homerville, OH
Black River High School

Crazy, funny, talkative. I would be a kiwi because it is somewhat of an exotic fruit. Plus, it is usually rounded and soft and sweet on the inside. Of course, food, especially something chocolate, money, magazines, etc.

Margaret Foot
Red Wing, MN
Red Wing High School

Leader, optimist, musician. An orange because everybody could have a section. Rice Krispie bars, chocolate chip cookies, a piano, a dog.

Luke Lindberg
Cleveland Heights, OH

Margie Clayman
Copley, OH
Copley High School

Smart, kind, honest.

Maggie Buckingham
Boylston, MA
Williston Northampton School

Athletic, loyal, outgoing. Pineapple — hard on the outside, but soft and sweet on the inside. My boyfriend!

Maria Dobray
Washington D.C.
Edmund Burke School

Empathic, taciturn, unpredictable. A plum — gazing, shiny texture, and its simultaneous "sweet 'n' sour" — you pierce your teeth through the outer layer sweetness, breaking them at the core — one by one... Something that brings it all back — mostly words on paper and music; a parrot or some kind (a picture would be nice); and the rest should be in my head.

Maria Tasker
Wyoming, MI
Grand Rapids Christian H.S.

Creative & intense, bubbly, sensitive & direct. A strawberry because they are sweet, everybody loves them, they are beautiful, exotic, and versatile. Giant blueberry bagels, Wheat Thins, carrot cake with cream cheese frosting, crispy apples, new CD's, good book, bubble gum.

Mark Unroe
Marietta, OH
Marietta High School

Outgoing, intelligent, motivated. A tomato because no one would believe that I was a fruit. My girlfriend, my bed, my bathroom, and some good food.

Marie Salupo
Euclid, OH
Euclid High School

Open-minded, inquisitive, and enthusiastic. I'd be a lemon because a little taste of lemon can wake a person up and because lemons are the main ingredient of lemonade which reminds me of warm, carefree summer days. Bubbles, coloring books, crayons, tickets to an Indians game, tea bags, lemons, silly putty, home-baked cookies, raspberries, stickers, letters and pictures from my family.

Mark Wolford
Newton Falls, OH
LaBrae High School

Marijke Hartzler
Wooster, OH
Northwestern High School

I would like to be a tomato because I like listening to people argue over whether it's a fruit or a vegetable. I also have no idea what I want to be so this way I wouldn't have to commit to anything.

Marla Leopold
Ottawa, OH
Ottawa-Glandorf High School

Outgoing, athletic, fun. Money, food, stamps, letter.

Marissa Lynn Moore
Penfield, NY
Penfield High School

Honest, athletic, personable. Kiwi because I've also wanted to be green and hairy. Homemade cookies, money, candy, and a sticker album.

Marshall Jones
Berea, OH
Berea High School

Talented and stubborn. I wouldn't be a fruit because I don't like most of them. Lots and lots of food — especially chocolate.

Mary Beth Immormino
Highland Heights, Ohio
Mayfield High School

Dedicated, energetic, strange. Watermelon — when I think of watermelon, I smile; when people think of me, they smile. Pictures of friends and family, cash, new clothes, iced tea mix, and a box of Corn Chex.

Matthew Brian Eging
Parma, OH
St. Ignatius High School

Different, funny, outgoing. A strawberry because I am eating one right now. The package would have pudding, A&W Cream Soda, and enough money to pay my tuition.

Matt King
Indianapolis, IN North Central High School

Blues Explosion Man. A peach — they come in cans. Watered down Yoo-Hoo and my low rider bicycle.

Max Wilson
Philadelphia, PA
Springfield Township High School

Contrast, competitive, irreverent. A green apple because it's crunchy and tart. Lebanon Sweet Bologna, chocolate chip cookies, New England Clam Chowder, Pepperoni Stromboli.

Matt Pettinelli
Dublin, OH
Bishop Watterson High School

Laid-back, easy-going, energetic. An apple because they're unique but yet everyone likes them.

Megan Corbett
St. Louis, MO
Villa Duchesne H.S.

Laid-back...night owl... quiet...a kiwi because not everyone would like me but the ones who do would love me...I would make sure that there is a lot of unhealthy food (chips, cheese balls, Pizza Hut gift certificate, etc.), some extra money would also be helpful because I'm sure I'll be savoring every penny.

Matthew Mace Barbee
Arlington, VA
St. Stephen's and St. Ounes/St. Martin's

Megan Hooker
Flagstaff, AZ
Sinagua High School

Is "down to earth" three words? Well, it's that, weird and compassionate — so I've been told. A banana because they're always in season and even if they get old you can still use them for bread. Arizona's monsoons & sunsets & blue skys & mountains, my cat, candles, Coache's Club sandwich and, of course, a hug from mom.

Megan Sergi
Coudersport, PA
Coudersport Junior/Senior High School

Sensitive, caring.
Watermelon — it's the juiciest. Bush's Baked Beans.

Melinda Forrest
Northfield, MA
Northfield Mt. Hermon H.S.

Plethorachick, cookies, snugly.
A pickle (OK — I know it's not a fruit exactly, but it's artistic license). They come in all shapes and sizes, can be sweet, sour, spicy, crunchy and smooshy, and are the perfect side dish for almost every kind of meal. Pug — my cat (I didn't name him Pugnacious for nothing)
— and some no bake fudge cookies — they sort of look like turd, but they taste good!

Megan Whinery
Chillicothe, OH
Chillicothe High School

Shy, creative, and I'm definitely a bibliophile.
Some of my dad's great homemade brownies.

Melissa Kunder
North Lima, OH

Michael Dean Gehlhausen
Sidney, Ohio
Sidney High School

Fun, crazy, grumpy (in the morning). Money and food (any kind).

Mike Dagostino
Tallahassee, FL
Lincoln High School

Nonchalant, conservative, and honest. I would be either a maraschino cherry (because they are always on top of everything) or a coconut from Tahiti (because they are always surrounded by beautiful women).

Michael David Gluck
Rittman, OH
Rittman High School

Dependable, likable, athletic.

Mike Suszter
Pittsburgh, PA
North Allegheny High School

A pomegranate because they are rare and full of color. About $50,000 and plane tickets to the Virgin Islands.

Michael Weeks
Applecreek, OH
Waynedale High School

Sensible, humorous, sociable. Banana because everybody likes a banana and the goal for me is to be a kind person that everybody likes. Clean clothes, food, cat, pictures of friends and family.

Muhammed Ahmed Nasir Warraich
Lahore/Punjab/Pakistan
Aitchison College

Honest, cool, handsome. Apple — I would keep the dog away. Family snaps, food, cash.

Michele Turko
Middleburg Heights, OH
Midpark High School

Socialable, romantic, unlogical (I'm so right-brained, I'm left-handed!). Kiwi — they seem to be make people happy — have you ever seen anyone talk about a kiwi without laughing? Pictures of my friends and family, letters from all of them, chocolate covered raisins.

Na'Shawnda Rae Mitchell
Cincinnati, OH
Cincinnati Cantry Day

Funny, relax, and studious. I would probably be an apple. I say this because I always wanted to be the apple in someone's eyes. A basket full of sweets, personal care items, and money.

Nate Bayer
Smithsburg, MD
Smithsburg High School

Athletic, easy-going, friendly. A grape — I like hanging out with other people and grapes come in bunches. Letters, money, and food.

Nicholas Morosoff
Alexandria, VA
West Potomac High School

Tall, well-informed, laughter. Lemon — don't like their form. Money.

Nathan Wilkinson
Columbus, OH
Fort Hayes Alternative

Conversationalist, humorous, creative. A tomato — they not only stand out by themselves, but they work well when blended with sauces lending foods their unique taste. A big juicy steak and a tasty beverage. A little money would be nice, too.

Nick DuVall
Middle Point, OH
Lincolnview High School

Particular, easy-going, sensitive. Kiwi — it's different and not well known. Pictures of everything and everyone. Also some food and money!

Nathaniel Strickler
Peoria, IL
Richwoods High School

A banana because I'm better when my skin is peeled off.

Nick Sanyk
North Olmsted, OH
North Olmsted High School

Fun, nice, interesting. An apple, but I don't know why. A box with a whole lot of money and CD's in it.

Niccole Cook
Brooklyn Heights, OH
Cuyahoga Heights H.S.

Studious, athletic, fun. A fruit that I would like to be? That's a tough one. I would probably be a tangerine. I love the sun; I'm kind of tough on the outside, but inside, I'm super sweet! My grandma's home cooking, news from home and some extra spending cash.

Nicole Daugherty
Mt. Vernon, OH
Mt. Vernon High School

Friendly, outgoing, and trustworthy. If I could be any fruit it would be an apple. I would like to receive money, make-up, my favorite snacks, and pop.

Nicole (Nikki) D. Kammer
Wooster, OH
Wooster High School

Lotta fun, smile, and sensitive. An orange because they are really good to eat and take a while to peel, but are delicious. CASH, any kind of food, and a stuffed animal.

Peter Anderson
Lexington, KY
Lafayette High School

Individual, intelligent, subdued. Apricot — it's the only dried fruit I like. Cash, toothpaste, gum, various magazines I can't afford a subscription to.

Nicole Miller
Cleveland, OH
Saint Joseph Academy

Energetic, creative, well-rounded. An apricot because the tree itself is beautiful. It has heart shaped leaves and white flowers. It is soft, warm, and has a delicate flavor. A care package for every holiday season that has little decorations that I could hang in my dorm, plus homemade chocolate chip cookies, and my mom's homemade chicken noodle soup.

Peter Fath
Great Neck, NY
Great Neck South Senior High School

Kind, outgoing, helpful. Letters, pictures, and a little bit of food.

Nicole Scott
Mansfield, OH
Madison Comprehensive High School

Kiwi because they're small, sweet, unique, and everybody loves them. Jones Potato Chips — made only in Mansfield, Ohio.

Peter Kurty
Brattleboro, VT
Brattleboro Union High School

Outgoing, well-rounded. I would be a grape because even when they are ugly and dried out, people still love them. Mostly money.

Norm Hirschy
Hudson, OH
Hudson High School

Tall, conservative, and kooky. A tomato because everybody would think that I'm a vegetable and I could laugh smugly, comfortable in the knowledge that I was really a fruit. A cheesecake, a mocha from Arabica, a Key Lime pie, my Neon, a Mastercard, Jeeves, the B-52's, Ann B. Davis, and the complete Monty Python.

Rachel C. Hunter
Richmond, IN Richmond High School

Creative, crazy, Christian. A pomegranate because I'm unusual and hard to find. An Ella Fitzgerald CD, a stuffed frog, sheet music from Broadway musicals, and a toothbrush.

Rachel Weeks
Butler, OH
Northmor High School

Friendly, fun, busy. Ok, I don't know. I guess I'd want to be a strawberry, but I don't know why; just because. Some of my mom's good cooking!! A case of Pepsi, toothpaste, shampoo, soap, hairspray, etc.

Rebecca Adele Rollins
Twinsburg, OH
R.R. Chamberlin H.S.

Realistic, intelligent, outgoing. I would be a tomato because not everybody would know I was a fruit. Some of my father's cheese lasagna, stamps, a pre-paid calling card, letters from my brothers and sisters, and munchies.

Rachel Yates
Medina, OH
Medina High School

Curious, funny, and talkative. A pineapple because although I may sometimes seem tough or "spiny" on the outside, I'm really sweet on the inside. A huge crate full of junk food and my friends from home and Antonio Banderas thrown in wouldn't be too bad!

Rebecca Eileen Tropeano
Massapequa Park, NY
Farmingdale High School

Unique, energetic, sincere. I would be a cherry because sometimes it can be beautiful and other times it can be tied in knots. Hair products, animal crackers, money, key chains, clothes, a car, letters from friends and photographs, and a maid.

Rebecca Gardner
Willoughby Hills, OH
Willoughby South H.S.

Late, independent, sincere. Breadfruit because it's poisonous unless cooked right so I'd rarely be eaten. Multi-Grain Cheerios, my Labrador Retrievers, mint chocolate chip cookies, cinnamon raisin bagels, and hot chocolate mix.

Rebecca Turner
Wooster, OH
Wooster High School

Outgoing, positive attitude, reliable. I would be a raspberry because it's such a pretty color and tastes good. A dozen red or white roses, magazines (such as YM, Ellure, People, Newsweek), snack foods, stickers, and other things.

Rebecca Koishor
Olmsted Falls, OH
Olmsted Falls High School

Harbor Springs High School

Organized, responsible, stubborn. My ideal care package would be neat toys from the toy store that my parents own.

Sarah Nagelbush
Big Rapids, MI
Big Rapids High School

Fun (in a safe way), eclectic, SMART. Banana because almost everybody likes them and they are considered "the perfect fruit." Books, movies, pictures of my friends, letters from friends, stuffed animals (one or more), music (CD's and tapes), and a surprise.

Sarah Antel
Mantua, OH
Notre Dame - Cathedral Latin School

Funny, charming, strange. I would be a navel orange because I have never been associated with a belly button before. Caffeine, home-cooked food, money.

Sarah Smith
New Canaan, CT
Kent High School

Compassionate, determined, dynamic. Raspberry because of their deep red color, sweet taste, yet they are protected by brambles and are not so common. Holiday decorations.

Finneytown High School

Smiley, energetic, and happy. Kiwi because it is ugly on the outside...or a paya because it's pink...but raspberry sounds good (razz-berry) and I've always wanted to be tall and pineapples tower over other fruits...Cereal, definitely cereal. I love cereal. I could eat it for every meal — in fact, sometimes I do!

Umair Aziz
Karachi, Pakistan
Karachi Grammar School

I am me.

Todd DeLong
North Lewisburg, OH
Triad High School

Clothes, pictures, money.

Vaughn Crawford
Houston, TX
Lamar High School

Courageous — we all must have the courage to allow a little disorder in our lives; introspective — I have nothing to offer anyone except my own confusion; goal oriented — soccer pun and “I am a seeking man” — Diogenes. Swedish fish, crazy dip, stickers, a letter confirming a high paying summer job for next summer, a note from my mom.

Trisha Wiles
Sterling, OH
Norwayne High School

Outgoing, friendly.
Coconut. Radio.

Victoria Russ
Great Falls, VA
Herndon High School

Freaky, short, artist.
Squash — ?. Lots of art supplies, glitter, glow in the dark things, and toys.

Tyler Tervo
Chagrin Falls, OH
Chagrin Falls H.S.

Friendly, creative, unpredictable. I would be a kiwi because I am simple, but sweet. I would like to bring my mom's homecooking and I would wrap up my girlfriend and bring her with me.

Walter Modeen
Southbury, CT
Pomperaug High School

Likable, funny, competitive.

Whitney Brooke Marsh
Shaker Heights, OH
Shaker Heights H.S.

Virtuous, faithful, meek. A papaya because they are very rare — just like me. My Bible, money, lots of pictures, my teaching and Gospel tapes, stereo, shoes, clothes, accessories, toiletries.

William Clue Nethero
Jeromesville, OH
Hillsdale High School

Not Pictured

Brock Wanless
Wauseon, OH
Wauseon High School

Athletic, blunt, intelligent. I would be a peach because everyone would want me! Money, toilet paper, food, beverages, and pictures.

D'Loreyn Nikole Walker
Pickerington, OH
Pickerington High School

Independent, individualized, interrogative. I don't know, but give me a year or two. Then I'll tell you what I should have had.

Jacob Egner
Akron, OH
East High School

Fun, loved, intelligent. Apple — it's one of the only fruits I like. A car, lots of money, some cookies, and clean clothes.

Jacquelyn Marie Gray
Fostoria, OH
Maumee Valley Country
Day School

Sunflowers, watersports, energy. Apple — tastes good by itself or in a salad or mashed into applesauce; can stand a drop or two, although it will bruise. Twizzlers, tampons, a card saying "I love you and I miss you," hat, pens and pencils, paper.

Kristen Lee Graham
St. Petersburg, FL
Hyde School

Fun, adventurous, and enthusiastic. I would be a strawberry because it is colorful, sweet, and pretty. It is also a fruit most people enjoy. Toiletries — I love receiving shower gel, soaps, shampoo, perfumes, and other cute stuff. Food is always wonderful as well.

Megan Tarrant
Carlisle, PA
Mercersburg Academy

Optimistic, humorous, and empathetic. An apple because I'm crunchy. Cash, cash, and cash.

Miranda Irene Loflin
Oberlin, OH
Elyria Catholic High School

A kiwi - it's my favorite. It's fun to eat, different, and sweet. Rotel (Mex Cheese Dip) and chips, chocolate chip cookies from mom, Absolut Vodka from Sis.

Nicole Sprenger
Amherst, OH
Marion L. Steele High School

Dedicated, dependable, athletic. A grape — so people will take me whole, but will always have more on the vine. Pictures of friends and family, letters from friends, my basketball, a journal, music.

Shaun Rafferty
Crownsville, MD
Old Mill Senior High School

Guava — it's fun to say.

What is the craziest thing you've ever done?

My teammates and I got permission from the police to toilet paper our tennis coach during the middle of the afternoon!

Helping a friend put a bra and a pair of underwear on a statue of Mary outside of my high school.

My friends and I got a garbageman to give us a ride on the back of his truck.

I invited myself into a complete stranger's home, trying to convince them that they knew me.

I organized and helped put 6 chickens in our high school.

I pissed out of my homeroom window with everyone watching.

Senior prank—Hoisting a deer up the flagpole.

I can't answer because all my attempts to hide my act from the FBI would be rendered futile.

Let my professor sneak me into the Kremlin by telling the guys with the machine guns I was a Russian student (I don't speak Russian).

Peed on the mayors parking space in a fit of rage after a city council meeting with an outcome I didn't care for.

I called in a bomb threat to my high school from the pay phone outside the office.

Going to Wooster.

In 7th grade my science class was dissecting frogs. I was dared to eat the frog's foot. I said no. The boys said it was because I was a girl. I said, "Cut it off!" I ate the entire foot which had a wonderful taste.

While I was at a camp one summer at Ohio State, I put a banana in a microwave in a dorm room and left. While I was gone, the banana started smoking and set off the smoke alarms, calling the fire department at 11:30 at night.

Played strip-pidgle with 3 of my guy friends on the way home from a concert.

Applied to one college.

Traveling from the Seattle area to Wooster in an Izusu Trooper II with a younger sibling & both parents.

Once in a high-rise hotel in North Carolina, I spit over our balcony railing directly into the cup of the man who was holding his cup out over the edge of his balcony below us.

I transferred to an all-girls catholic high school by choice.

While in high school a group of friends and I would leave Spam on our favorite teacher's doorstep once a month. We would carve the Spam into an interesting formation like a heart for Valentine's Day or a birthday cake for her birthday.

Five people in togas, including me, went into someone's bedroom while he was sleeping, picked up the mattress he was on, and carried it outside.

Words of Wisdom from the Class of 2000

"It's better to regret something you did, then something you didn't do." —Red Hot Chili Peppers

"You don't get to choose how you're going to die. Or when. You can only decide how you're going to live. Now." —Joan Baez

"Shower the people you love with love, show them the way that you feel."
—James Taylor

"Don't compromise yourself, you're all you've got." —Janis Joplin

Look both ways before you cross the street, up then down.

Don't panic—just make sure you know where your towel is and everything will be fine.

Dreaming permits each and every one of us to be quietly and safely insane every night of our lives.

Calories you eat with friends don't count.

The trouble with following the herd is stepping in what is left behind.

"Small is the number of them that see with their own eyes and feel with their own hearts." —Albert Einstein

"If 'pro' is the opposite of 'con,' what is the opposite of 'progress'?" —Paul Harvey

Take time to daydream, try new things, believe in yourself, never give up, keep smiling, speak up, listen to others, don't take yourself too seriously, and if one big tomato with fangs starts walking toward you, start running the other way.

Never let a perfect stranger kiss your hand unless he's perfect.

Problems are only solutions with thorns in them.

Have as much fun in the next four years as possible.

Vote Democratic.

Everything happens for a reason.

"...let it be." —The Beatles

On the last day of your life, don't forget to die.

It is best to have a few good friends rather than a group of friends who call themselves your friend.

Being an independent person also means accepting the humility to believe you need other people in your life to help you along the way. No one can do life alone. Interdependence is more powerful than independence.

A loser says "it might be possible, but it is too difficult." A winner says "it might be difficult, but it is possible."

"Even a mosquito doesn't get a slap on the back until it starts to work"
—Unknown

Don't eat yellow snow!

If the world couldn't laugh, we all would die.

"No one is useless in this world who lightens the burden of another." —Charles Dickens

Late Arrivals

Adam J. Budd
Wooster, OH
Triway High School

Laid Back Attitude. Papaya-something out of the ordinary. My favorite hard to come by snacks, a new Tori Amos CD, and money.

Bobby Bodnar
Cincinnati, OH
Mariemont High School

Out of Control. A banana, for anatomical similarities. Richie's Famous Fried Chicken, a box of Swisher Sweet Perfectos, the Def Jam 10th Anniversary Box Set.

Elizabeth Gill
Louisville, KY
Eastern High School

If I were a piece of fruit, I would be a grape because I would never be lonely and always part of a bunch.

Erica Laine House
Lexington, KY
Lafayette High School

Independent, outgoing, ambitious. A kiwi because it's not very common, but very delicious. Cards & letters, news from friends, pictures, little surprises.

Gautam Jaggi
Calcutta, West Bengal, India
La Martiniere For Boys

Generous, caring, honest. Mango-so that people can praise my sweetness. My mother's instructions.

Jessica Miller
Hamden, CT
Hamden High School

Energetic, happy, friendly. Peach-a peach is soft, sweet, and sensitive.

Kate Smith (Katherine)
Reston, VA
South Lakes High School

Happy, relaxed, social. Pineapple-because it grows in the tropics and I could be on the beach! Chocolate chip cookies, $, Tortilla Factory tortilla chips, & salsa.

Katherine Buckley (Katie) Wilmington, OH
Wilmington High School

Independent, stubborn, inquisitive. Blueberry-it would be fun to blow-up like Veruca Salt in Willie Wonka and it's my favorite fruit. New CD, chocolate chip cookies, pictures, M&M's.

Kaushik Rathi
Calcutta/West Bengal/India
St. Joseph's College

If only words could describe me, then I guess, it would be, "FRIENDLY, OUTSTANDING, and a PERFECTIONIST."

Kim A. Nadin
N. Royalton, OH
N. Royalton High

The words that best describe me are outgoing, responsible. If I could be a fruit, I would be a guava. Guavas are rare and delicious. The best package from home would be a photo album of my family and friends.

Friendly, ambitious. Food; lots and lots of Romanian food (oh, and money!).

Pat Kindis
Clinton, OH
Manchester

Happy, focused. Cookies.

Rakesh Chander Talwar
Calcutta/West Bengal/India
La Martiniere For Boys

Friendly, straightforward, accommodating. I would be an apple because "an apple a day keeps the doctor away."

Sara Rance
Canandaigua, NY
Canandaigua Academy

Spirited, tan, inquisitive. A kiwi because they're fuzzy, green, and delicious. More financial aid, guide of surrounding area for hiking, indications towards professors who are in tune to my style of learning.

Stacey Schwarzwald
Shreve, OH
Triway High School

Dependable, trustworthy, friendly. Homemade cookies and money.

Steve Bayuk
Beaver Falls, PA
Blackhawk High School

Thirsty-Blunt-Competitive. I don't like fruity people. Beer and lots of it.

WOOSTER

We Welcome You to Wooster Sheer Professionals would like to welcome you to Wooster and to our Studios.

IF YOU LOVE TO INVENT/REINVENT YOURSELF...

...you'll need two things. A great hair cut. And a great collection of styling products. We have both! First, we'll custom design your cut and style. Then we'll demonstrate the right styling products so you can invent/reinvent your style three or four different ways. The performance-based professional styling collection...formulated to give you unlimited style options because one look does not fit all!
